Color Chart

- KHAKI - All general population offenders
- RED - All segregation offenders (including Disciplinary and Administrative Segregation and Protective Custody)
- ORANGE - All offenders being transported. (Additionally, all offenders housed at the Reception Diagnostic Center and those transported by this facility will wear orange jumpsuits. Community Re-Entry Centers will not be required to transport offenders in the orange jumpsuits.)
- GREEN - Offender Work Crews operating within the facility. (This color will be issued at the discretion of the Superintendent if it is felt that these offenders need to be distinguished from the regular general population offenders.)
- YELLOW - Outside Offender Work Crews

As per Executive Directive

#09 - 50: a change in the clothing for adult offenders from the current khaki shirt and pants to the khaki jumpsuit for male offenders and a two-piece khaki top and bottom for female offenders has been issued.

The adult facilities are to begin the transition to these colored jumpsuits or scrubs immediately. When new offender clothing is ordered from PEN, the facilities are to order a sufficient number of the various color jumpsuits and/or scrubs to meet the needs of the facility. The new jumpsuits or scrubs may be issued to offenders commencing on September 1, 2009.

NOTE: These jumpsuits have been reported to "run" smaller than PEN's previous jumpsuits due to design changes requested by DOC. Because of this, PEN recommends ordering the Sample Kit, at no charge, before ordering quantities of jumpsuits.
